

Default Formatter

The Default Formatter allows you to transform and style the column row value with various options available.

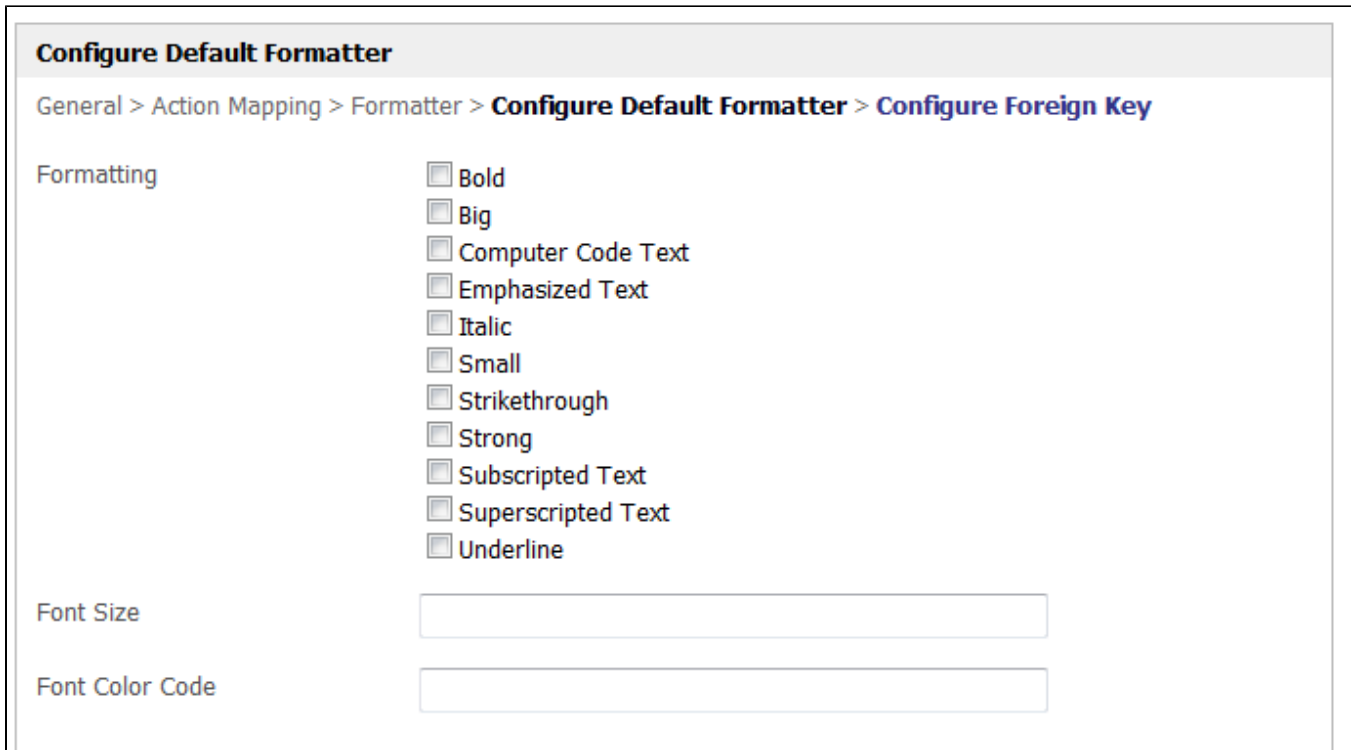

Figure 1: Default Formatter Properties - Configure Default Formatter

It is also possible to map the value as a foreign key to another form table to display certain column value. Please see Formatting and Making Foreign Key Reference Using Default Formatter for example.

Figure 2: Default Formatter Properties - Configure Foreign Key