Signature

Definition

Signature is a special element with canvas to collect user's input by scribbling/sketching on it.

Figure 1: Screenshot highlighting Signature in Form Builder

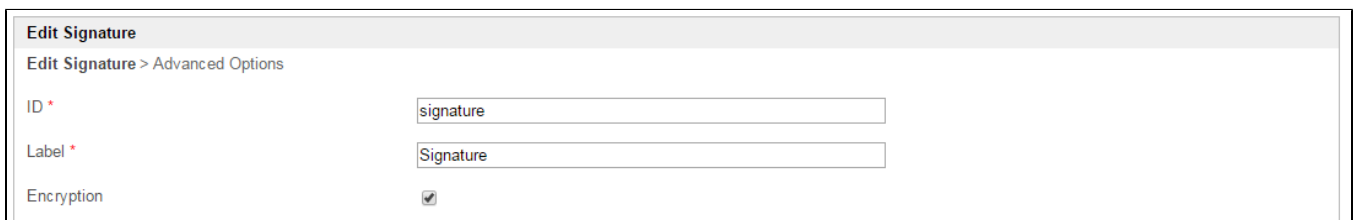

Figure 2: Signature in actual form

Figure 3: Signature properties

Name	Description
ID	Element ID (By declaring as "signature", a corresponding database table column "c_signature" will be created)
Label	Element Label to be displayed to end user.
Encryption	Determines if the value should be encrypted upon saving into the database.

Figure 4: Signature - Advanced Options

Name	Description
Validator	Attach a Validator plugin to validate the input value. ⓘ When will validation takes place? Validation will takes place whenever form is submitted except when it is submitted as "Save as Draft".
Width	Width of the element in character. Example `300px`
Height	Height of the element in character. Example `300px`
Readonly	Determines if the element is editable.

Related Tutorials

- Add Signature Form Element as Image into Email Content