Process Data Collector

Process Data Collector can be enabled at the App's level to allow additional information to be gathered primarily for statistical and analytic purpose.

You may enable the Process Data Collector plugin in your app's Plugin Default Properties.

Go to Properties & Export > Set Plugin Default Properties -> Choose Process Data Collector.

Once enabled, data will be written into app_report_ tables in your Joget database.

Related: Enabling Data Collection for SLA Implementation