

Hedera Account Load Binder

- Introduction
- Plugin Properties
 - Configure Hedera Account Load Binder
 - Map Value To Form Fields

Introduction

This form load binder plugin allows you to load account data directly from the Hedera DLT into a form. This plugin can be used at the form level or at the form section level.

Plugin Properties

Configure Hedera Account Load Binder

Name	Description
Operator ID	See Hedera Default Backend Configuration .
Operator Key
Network Type
Account ID	The account ID to load data for. Typically a Hash Variable is used here.

Map Value To Form Fields

Name	Description
HBAR Balance	The current available HBAR balance in this account.
Token Balances	<table><tr><th>Name</th><th>Description</th></tr><tr><td>Token ID</td><td>Paste in the token ID to retrieve balance for.</td></tr><tr><td>Map To Form Field</td><td>Selections here will show all available fields in the current form. Select the field to load this token balance to.</td></tr></table>	Name	Description	Token ID	Paste in the token ID to retrieve balance for.	Map To Form Field	Selections here will show all available fields in the current form. Select the field to load this token balance to.
Name	Description
Token ID	Paste in the token ID to retrieve balance for.
Map To Form Field	Selections here will show all available fields in the current form. Select the field to load this token balance to.
Account Memo	A note or description that was set for this account (maximum length of 100 characters).
Is Account Deleted	To indicate if this account is marked as deleted or not.
Is Receiver Signature Required	To indicate if this account requires signing for incoming transactions.
EVM Address	The EVM-equivalent account address based on the Account ID.
Max Automatic Token Associations	The maximum number of custom tokens that an account can automatically associate without manual preauthorization. Default value on account creation is 0.						