

Run Process

Definition

The Run Process option available at the Process tab allows the administrator/App Designer to quickly start a process instance of the current displayed process. The intended use case is to verify the process before publishing the App.

Design App:

HR Expenses Claim App

Version 1

Published

1 Forms & UI

2 Processes

3 Properties & Export

All Apps

Design Process

Update via Saved XPDL

Run Process

Process name: Expense Approval Process

```
graph TD
    subgraph Client
        Start(( )) --> EditClaim[Edit Claim]
        EditClaim --> Submit[Submit]
        Submit --> Approve[Approve Claim]
        Approve --> Route1{Route 1}
        Route1 -- "Approved [Approval status = 'Approved']" --> Verify[Verify Claim]
        Route1 -- "Rejected [Approval status = 'Rejected']" --> NotifyAppr[Notify Approver Rejection]
        NotifyAppr --> End1(( ))
        Verify --> Route2{Route 2}
        Route2 -- "Valid [Approval status = 'Valid']" --> NotifyFin[Notify Finance Verified]
        Route2 -- "Invalid [Approval status = 'Invalid']" --> NotifyFinRej[Notify Finance Rejection]
        NotifyFin --> End2(( ))
        NotifyFinRej --> End3(( ))
    end
    subgraph Admin
        EditClaim --> UpdateRecord[Update Record Status to Submitted]
        UpdateRecord --> Approve
    end
```

Show Additional Info