

Workflow Form Binder

- Introduction

Introduction

Workflow Form Binder is the default form storage and loading handler for Joget's Form Builder.

Form data will be saved automatically in their own table columns as defined in each form element in the table name defined in the form's properties.

What to configure?

There is no further configuration needed after being selected as the Store/Load binder.